

Natashua Coetzer

Partner

Natashua is a partner at Alchemy providing expertise to the firm's corporate and commercial law disciplines among others. Her proficiency extends across a number of industry sectors. Before joining Alchemy she was a director of a boutique law firm focusing on corporate and commercial law, including mergers and acquisitions.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Corporate and Commercial
- Corporate Governance
- Competition Law
- Mergers and Acquisitions

INDUSTRIES

- Corporate
- Construction and Engineering
- Gambling and Gaming
- Industrials and Manufacturing
- Mining, Minerals and Energy

EDUCATION

University of Pretoria

- BLC (cum laude) 2008
- LLB (cum laude) 2010

LANGUAGES

- Afrikaans
- English

CONTACT

natashua@alchemylawafrica.com

Practice focus

Natashua is passionate about mergers and acquisitions. This includes advising clients, composing and structuring documentation and managing the entire transaction life cycle from cradle to grave. Her experience also includes various commercial contracts, corporate and company law, corporate governance, competition law, black economic empowerment and regulatory work.

Representative clients and matters:

Mergers and Acquisitions

- Advised a private equity firm in respect of the disposal of Enviroserv to Suez International, including obtaining approval from the competition authorities.
- Advised a private equity fund in respect of the acquisition of a steel roofing company, including obtaining approval from the competition authorities.
- Advised Enviroserv in respect of the acquisition of an additional 50% of the shares in Vissershok Waste Management, including obtaining approval from the competition authorities.
- Advised Bidvest in respect of the acquisition of Dekra Automotive.
- Advised Southern Point Resources in respect of the funding of the Bushveld Minerals Group and acquisition of equity in Bushveld Minerals and some of its subsidiaries.
- Advised the Aveng group in respect of the disposal of its Trident Steel business.
- Advised a private equity fund in respect of the acquisition of a steel roofing company,
- Advised on various disposals and acquisitions in the manufacturing, betting and gaming, precious metals and environmental industries, including obtaining approval from the competition authorities.
- Advised on the team that represented the lottery operator in a hostile takeover by another company.
- Advised various clients on the setting up of employee empowerment trusts and provided general advice to trustees.